About Mahalaxmi Temple Kolhapur
History
The Shree Mahalaxmi Temple of Kolhapur is one of the 18 Maha Shakti Peethas. Built in the 7th century by the Chalukya empire, it holds immense spiritual significance where Goddess Mahalaxmi (Ambabai) resides.
Architecture
The temple structure features the majestic Hemadpanthi architectural style built with local black stone. The beautiful mandap contains deeply carved pillars and five towering spires.
Darshan Timings
Doors open daily at 04:30 AM. Kakad Aarti at 05:30 AM, Mukha Darshan throughout the day, and Shej Aarti at 10:00 PM.
Kirnotsav Festival
The famous Festival of Sun Rays where the sun's rays fall directly on the deity's feet, chest, and face sequentially at sunset around Jan-Feb and November.
